

Announcement of NDRC on no relationship with the "First China Carbon Market Fair"

Recently sources said "China's energy-saving environmental Union" would hold a "First China Carbon Market Fair" in Beijing International Convention Center from April 20th - 21st, 2008. In their meeting propaganda materials, Office of National Climate Change Coordination Committee of National Development and Reform Commission is listed as one of the supporter, and Deputy Director of NDRC , Director of Office of NCCCC as well as other governmental officers are involved as attending guests, which is totally not as the fact, not only misleading the public but making undue influence as well.

National Development and Reform Commission has not any relation with this "Carbon Market Fair" activity. Neither NDRC is the supporter of the meeting, nor will our officers attend the meeting. NDRC will not take any responsibility for any results and influence caused by the wrong information. We hereby make this announcement and reserve the right to take further legal action against the matter when necessary.
