Organization Briefing	KEMCO, since 1980, has been committed to a wide range of energy management programs including energy audits for industrial facilities and commercial buildings and RD&D (Research, Development and Dissemination) for renewable energy and energy efficient technologies. Based on such experiences and expertise, KEMCO have been seeking to contribute to mitigation of Climate Change by doing its part in certification of CDM projects, implementation of national emission reductions registration systems and establishment of national emission trading schemes.
